

Canal TEST DRIVE

NEVER PAY FOR IDLE TIME

For more than 80 years, Canal Insurance Company has been providing insurance for truckers across the nation. Both new ventures and experienced truckers have turned to Canal for their trucking insurance needs.

Starting a new business in the trucking industry can be a complex process, so let Canal take the guess work out of your insurance cost with our simplified approach to paying monthly based on the actual miles you drive.

Visit our website at www.canalinsurance.com and click on “Find an Agent” to obtain a quote from one of our appointed general agents across the U.S.

THE PROGRAM

Who is eligible for the program?

Any trucking operation with a DOT number, less than two years in business, and operating one truck in the United States.

How does it work?

Connect the Canal Test Drive device to your truck, and miles driven will be reported electronically on a monthly basis; there is no paperwork on your end.

Canal Test Drive, an exciting new option that is designed to help you manage your actual insurance cost based on the miles you drive using a telematics device provided by Samsara, a leader in trucking technology solutions.

The Canal Test Drive option can help you plan for the road ahead.

BENEFITS

- Never pay for idle time, pay for only the miles you drive each month.
- No large out-of-pocket startup cost, making it one of the lowest in the industry.
- Your deposit can be applied to your renewal policy.
- No monthly paperwork on your end.
- No monthly minimum premium applies; you only pay when you roll.
- No installment fees or interest is added.
- The device meets the requirements for electronic logging (as mandated by the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration) and will assist with required IFTA reporting.
- Canal covers the entire cost of the Canal Test Drive device for as long as you are on the program.
